

REFUSE TO CALL OFF OUTLAW RAILROAD STRIKE

OVERALL CLUBS ARE CONDEMNED BY UNION LABOR; IDEA SPREADS

Springfield Labor Says They Add to H. C. L. of Workingman.

The first "overall" club in this locality appeared this morning on the streets of Sterling and Rock Falls, when 45 employees of the Keystone plant of the International Harvester company at Rock Falls reported for duty attired in overalls. The club announced that overalls would be worn beginning May 1 for three months during the summer. Inquiry at many other manufacturing industries of Rock Falls and Sterling disclosed the fact that the club will very soon boast a membership of many hundred.

Chicago, April 17.—Overalls made their first appearance in Chicago today when Billy B. Rose of New York City, promenaded down Michigan boulevard in trousers and jumper of blue denim, so toff with a neat pin stripe of white.

Peeping from the breast pocket of his gingham coat was a $2 silk handkerchief, a $20 silk shirt was visible above the rolled back collar and on his head was a $15 hat but the suit only cost $10.

While the overall movement is spreading throughout the central west, it has already begun to meet opposition. The Springfield, Ill., Federation of Labor last night adopted resolutions condemning the plan because the demand for overalls has increased the price, thereby adding to the cost of living of those workmen who have to wear them.

The biggest overall club in the state is being organized at Elgin by 4,000 employees of a watch factory. At Marinette, Wis., the high school faculty has withdrawn opposition to a students' club, and the teachers have agreed to wear denim. The graduating class is considering overalls for commencement wear, and the girls may wear gingham dresses.

Springfield, Ill., April 17.—The "Overall Clubs" are adding to the high cost of living of men who have to wear them, the Springfield Federation of Labor declares and they passed a resolution last night condemning the movement. Denims have greatly increased in price since the movement to wear overalls began, speakers said at the labor meeting.

Other departments will join the movement next week and the plan is to have all the 4,000 workers in khaki or denim by the first of May.

SPREADS TO PACIFIC COAST
By Associated Press Leased Wire
San Francisco, Calif., April 17.—The vogue of overalls for business wear was spreading throughout the Pacific coast from California to Vancouver, B. C., today as a protest against the high cost of clothing and as an effort to reduce clothing costs. Members of the editorial staff of the San Francisco Examiner, from Assistant Managing editor to copy boys agreed to wear overalls during working hours beginning Monday. At Vancouver, B. C., city employees completed arrangements for an "overall league."

OFFICIAL RECOGNITION
By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, April 17.—The Overall Club yesterday obtained what amounts to official recognition. The navy department granted permission to members of such a club formed by civilian employees at the Norfolk navy yards and Hampton Roads base to purchase the denim garments from the navy at cost price. Two suits of overalls of the standard type worn by the American bluejacket are to be allowed each club member.

IN SOLDIER'S HOME
Quincy, Ill., April 17.—An "overall club" has been formed at the Illinois Soldiers' and Sailors' Home here, and already a large number of members are wearing the overalls. There are about 1,500 male members at the home.

IN PEORIA FACTORIES
Peoria, Ill., April 17.—An overall club was started today among male office employees of one of Peoria's big industries, while the girls came to work in gingham dresses. Monday county officials and court house employees will appear in overalls to aid in the war against the high price of cloth.

NIGHT WATCHMAN FOILED BANDITS; WAS SHOT IN LEG

Thieves Forced to Abandon Booty and Flee in Auto.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Elgin, Ill., April 17.—Automobile bandits raided the village of Bartlett, seven miles east of Elgin early this morning and after collecting a large assortment of miscellaneous merchandise were forced to abandon their loot and were driven out of town by a band of villagers armed with revolvers and rifles.

The bandits in their flight exchanged several shots with the villagers. One of the shots took effect, hitting Herman Remmers, night watchman, in the leg.

Remmers disturbed the intruders just as they were making their getaway from the H. H. Schultz hardware store, which also houses the postoffice.

Five in the Gang.

The bandits, five in number, had left an automobile at the edge of the town. They separated when routed by the armed citizens and made their escape in the machine.

Remmers held the men at bay in the postoffice during an exchange of shots until he was wounded. After he fell the bandits fled from the building. He stated that he fired two more shots after the escaping men and is sure one of them was wounded.

Remmers says he recognized one of the men in the gang as a member of a similar party which visited Bartlett three weeks ago and looted a garage.

RUSSIA FOR U. M. T.

Moscow, April 6.—(By A. P.)—The abolition of the standing army for soviet Russia and the inauguration of a system of universal military training through militia formations among the agricultural and industrial unions was advocated by Leon Trotsky the minister of war in a speech to the communist convention which has just ended its sessions here.

The war minister said he would have every district organized along military lines with officers' schools and special training for boys under the military age if the scheme were adopted.

The third convention of the Russian trades union was opened today by Chairman Tomski. Speakers emphasized the importance of the congress declaring that the responsibility lay with it for organizing labor to enable it to overcome the present crisis so that it might be demonstrated to the world that it would be impossible to build up commerce and industry under the Communistic system.

STERLING FACES GAS FAMINE AS COAL IS TIED UP

Manufacture of Gas in That City to Stop
This Afternoon.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon, unless frantic efforts of the I. N. U. officials succeed in getting gas coal into Sterling, the manufacture of gas in that city will be stopped, and with the consumption of the gas in the colders at that time the consumers of Sterling and Rock Falls will be without the fuel.

The railroad strike has brought about the condition, and up to noon today efforts of the company officers to get coal into that city from Dixon or to locate many shipments of fuel which have left the mines and have been tied up somewhere in transit, had been unavailing.

At the offices of the company in this city it was learned that Dixon is in immediate danger of a gas famine, as there is a reasonable surplus of gas coal on hand here. Dixon, however, is among the more fortunate of the cities served by the I. N. U., many of which, it is reported, have fuel supplies sufficient for but two or three days to a week. A carload of coal for the Sterling plant has been loaded from the Dixon supply, but up to an early hour this afternoon the I. N. U. officials had been unable to get it moved by the railroad.

Former Dixon Girl Died Thursday Eve

Mrs. Raymond Figeley, a former resident of this city, passed away at the Robert Burns hospital in Chicago, April 15, at 8:30 in the evening, death following a very brief illness with a complication of heart troubles. She received her education in the Dixon public schools and lived here until April 14, 1917, when she was united in marriage to Raymond Figeley.

The young couple moved to Sterling where they made their home until about two weeks ago, when they went to Chicago. Mrs. Figeley was taken ill before the family had become settled in their new home and was taken to the Robert Burns hospital for treatment. Besides her husband, she is survived by two small sons, William and Joseph; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Duffy of Chicago; one sister, Mrs. Elmer Jones, 322 East Fifth street. Funeral services will be conducted from the Jones residence Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The body will be taken to St. Patrick's church, where Rev. Foley will conduct services at 2:30. Interment will be in Oakwood.

John Duis, Former Dixon Man, is Dead

Word was received here Thursday evening of the death of John F. Duis, son of the late Jelle and Katherine Duis of this city, at a hospital in Moline late yesterday after an illness of long duration with a complication of disease.

The deceased was born in South Dixon township, May 29, 1875 and lived in this vicinity until he had grown to manhood. About 20 years ago he went west, finally locating in North Dakota, where for a number of years he held the responsible position of United States deputy marshal. He was a prominent member of the lodge of Elks and many Masonic orders at Bismarck, and was 2nd degree Mason.

He is survived by one daughter, Miss Pauline Duis of Wichita, Kas., two brothers, George, of Grand Forks, N. D., Charles of this city; four sisters, Mrs. Edna Fisher of South Dixon, Mrs. Mary Ackert of Calhoun, Ill., Mrs. Della Southwell and Mrs. Margaret Ferry of this city. Rev. A. B. Whitcomb will conduct the service and burial will take place in Oakwood. Friends are requested to omit flowers.

RAIL STRIKE SITUATION

WEST

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, April 17.—Today was set by railroads as the time limit for "outlaw" strikers to return to work in several important centers in the west and an early collapse of the strike was believed to be in sight.

Freight movements increased today in central and far western states, and conditions were approaching normal. Railroad officials went ahead with preparations to replace strikers who failed to return to work.

In the Chicago district information was said to have been received by Charles F. Cline, United States district attorney that strike leaders arrested here for violation of the Lever act intended to abandon their organizations and either return to work or seek other places.

All the arrested leaders are at liberty until their hearing April 24. All not able to obtain bond were released on their own recognizance. Railroad officials reported improvement in traffic conditions in Chicago yards.

General Wood Leaves Chicago

Major General Leonard Wood left last night for Nebraska after announcing he found traffic conditions improving. He said he found no evidence of connection between the strike and I. W. W. activities.

Little change in the situation in Michigan and Ohio was reported early today. Several hundred thousand industrial workers remained idle awaiting the reopening of factories closed by a shortage of fuel and raw materials.

Increasing movement of freight at nearly all points in the far west was reported by railway officials. Concern was expressed, however, by growers of perishable crops in California at failure of railroads to move refrigerator cars.

Citrus is Endangered

A telegram sent by Governor Stephens of California to President Wilson quoted the manager of citrus fruit growers association as saying the organization had 1500 cars of fruit valued at $4,000,000 on tracks in various parts of the country in danger of serious deterioration.

Strike leaders at Los Angeles were reported to have declared their intention of tying up all passenger service there, allowing only milk and mail shipments to move.

At St. Louis freight embargoes were lifted on five roads and groups of strikers were returning to work.

One thousand maintenance of way men and shop laborers at Springfield, Mo., returned to work pending action of the labor board appointed by President Wilson.

REFUSE MEXICO RIGHT TO MOVE ARMY IN TEXAS

Washington, April 17.—Senator Knox, Republican, Pennsylvania, told the senate today that he was informed that the state department had refused the request of Mexican officers for a permit to transport troops through American territory to move against the anti-Carranza forces in Sonora.

SONORAN TROOPS TAKE R. R.

Agua Prieta, Sonora, April 17.—Sonora revolutionary forces marching into Sinaloa are extending their domination of the Southern Pacific De Mexico, an American owned railroad, as they advance, according to a dispatch from Hermosillo, capital of Sonora today. The railroad it was said would continue to be operated by the state of Sonora for military uses.

More than 400 troops were here last night and early today and more are en route to defend Agua Prieta against attack by Carranza troops, General J. M. Pina, military commander, announced. Reinforcements also are being sent on the Sonora Chihuahua border, he said.

Joseph Keenan Held for Carrying Liquor

Joseph Keenan of this city was arrested last evening by Chief Van Bibber and Officer Seagren about 8:20 o'clock on East River street for having two bottles of liquor in his possession. He was riding in an automobile with Frank Burns of this city when the officers stopped the latter, who was driving, to make some inquiry. The officers detected the odor of liquor and searched both men. Burns had no liquor in his possession and one bottle was found in Keenan's pockets.

The driver was ordered to proceed to the police station and Keenan demanded the bottle that had been taken from him, stating that he wanted a drink. When the chief refused him, Keenan pulled another bottle from an inside pocket and threw it out of the car. The car was stopped and the chief found the bottle, broken and took it to the station. Burns was not held at the preliminary hearing before Justice Grover Gehant, as he had no liquor in his possession. Keenan was unable to furnish bonds and spent the night in the county jail. He appeared before the justice this morning and furnished bonds, the case being continued until Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

OFFICIALS MEET BUT ADDED TO THEIR DEMANDS

However, Many Strikers Vote to Return to Their Jobs.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Chicago, Ill., April 17.—Hope for settlement of the rail strike here today apparently was definitely lost this morning when the grand lodge officers, directors and trustees of the "outlaw" union reiterated their original demands, and added new ones to the list.

It was reported when the leaders of the insurgent organization went into session that they were planning to advise their men to return to work.

Grunau's Statement.

At the close of the session John Grunau, president of the Chicago Yardmen's association, which called the first strike here, issued this statement:

"At a meeting of grand lodge officers, board of directors and board of trustees of the Chicago Yardmen's association at 10 a. m. it was unanimously decided that the original demands the C. Y. A. presented to the General Managers' association shall stand. Also that as far as switchmen and switch tenders are concerned we must be recognized as the governing body. Also that there shall be no discrimination against any men who have withdrawn from various railroad companies and they must be restored to their former seniority rank."

Signed—"John Grunau."

What Demands Mean.

The demand that "rebel" organization be made the governing body for switchmen would take approximately 66,000 members from the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and about 5,000 from the Switchmen's Union of North America, including the entire membership of the latter organization, union leaders say.

The general managers and the brotherhood heads here have given the strikers until midnight to return to work under penalty of losing their seniority. Similar action has been taken elsewhere.

Mr. Grunau this morning indicated he was prepared to go ahead with the strike, despite the arrest of himself and 24 associates on charges of conspiracy to violate the Lever act.

Another Meeting Monday.

He sent the following message to the presidents of all yardmen's association locals throughout the country:

"You are requested to attend a meeting of the executive officers of the Chicago Yardmen's association to be held at Chicago Monday, April 19, at 10 a. m. Signed—"John Grunau."

Plans for continuing the strike will be taken up at this meeting, he said.

Not Against Government.

"We are trying to win our fight in a good, clean way," said Mr. Grunau. "I deplore the newspaper reports which represent us in an attitude of bravado and defiance against the government."

"I have all the respect in the world for the U. S. government and the laws of the U. S. government. I have always been against radical and I. W. W. tactics and no such tactics have been employed by the switchmen who are out."

One speaker from Cleveland who addressed an open meeting of the yardmen's association told them that the men were remaining out 100 per cent in the chief Ohio railroad centers.

MEET TODAY IN ST. LOUIS

By Associated Press Leased Wire
St. Louis, April 17.—Striking yardmen in this district met today, it was said, to consider calling off the unauthorized strike. J. S. Sines, vice president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and leader of the regular organization forces that have been fighting the "outlaw" strike in the Pittsburg district, said today. All reports, he added, indicated a general breaking up of the strike forces in this territory.

R. R. BOARD HEARS DEMANDS

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, April 17.—Hearings on the wage demands of the country's two million railroad workers were begun today by the railroad labor board with W. N. Doak, vice president of the Brotherhood of Trainmen, presenting the employees case.

R. M. Barton of Tennessee, who failed to arrive yesterday was present today and A. O. Wharton, the other absent member was expected before night.

Temporary offices have been established by the board in the union station and hearings probably will be conducted there for two or three weeks when the board expects to establish permanent headquarters in Chicago.

Permanent organization of the board will be deferred until after Mr. Wharton arrives.

Mrs. William Cash, Prairieville, Dead

Mrs. William Clarinda Cash, wife of William T. Cash, died suddenly at the family home in Prairieville last evening about 11 o'clock, following an illness of but a few minutes duration. Mrs. Cash had been sitting up sewing during the evening and retired about 11 o'clock. She was taken with a coughing spell and complained to her husband. Dr. Snavely of Sterling was summoned but she had passed away before he arrived. Coroner S. J. Whetston of Steward was notified and arrived in Dixon this morning to conduct an inquest this afternoon.

Mrs. Cash was born in Syracuse, N. Y., Aug. 20, 1849 and for the past ten years had resided in Prairieville. The funeral arrangements have not been completed and will be announced later.

Corn Price Reflects Nearing Strike End

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, April 17.—Weakness developed in the corn market today chiefly owing to prospects of a speedy end of the railway strike. With improved traffic conditions, larger receipts were looked for. Excellent weather counted also as a bearish factor. Opening prices, which varied from unchanged figures to 1 3/4¢ lower, May 1.68 1/2 to 1.69 1/4 and July 1.63 1/2 to 1.64 1/2, were followed by moderate rallies, but then by a fresh decline.

Oats were weak with corn and as a result of continued talk of selling of oats on the part of foreigners. After opening unchanged to 1/4¢ lower including July 87 1/2 to 87 3/4¢ the market underwent an additional sag before beginning to react.

Provisions declined with grain. Firmness in hog values had only a transient effect.

During the last part of the session an upturn took place in connection with week end adjustment of trade. The close was firm at the same as yesterday's finish to half cent higher.

Weekly Grain Review.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, April 17.—Extraordinary high prices for wheat have stimulated brisk new advances this week in the corn market. Compared with a week ago, corn quotations (this morning) ranged from 2 1/2¢ to 4 1/4¢ up, oats showed gains of 1/2¢ to 3/4¢ and provisions a rise varying from 17¢ to $1.50.

Although at times the measures taken to bring the railway strike to an end led to sharp setbacks in the corn market, the dominating factor on the whole was wheat at $3.00 and upward a bushel. This influence was ascribed in turn to sudden expansion of European demand for breadstuffs, a circumstance due partly to likelihood of lessened production of wheat in the United States this year, and partly to chances that India, Australia and Argentina might declare embargoes against the exportation of wheat. The upward strain of the corn market was partly relieved, however, by big resales of oats which had been purchased for France. A motive for re-selling was said to be to provide increased vessel room for wheat and rye.

Oats sympathizing with corn jumped to new high price records for the season and then reacted somewhat. Provisions reflected the grain advance and the semi-monthly warehouse report indicating no burdensome new increase of stocks.

W. C. T. U. MEETING—

Mrs. A. N. Richardson opened her home Friday afternoon to the members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, meeting in regular session. Twenty members were present. Mrs. Herman Misseman, president, was in charge. After the opening exercises it was voted to support the French orphan another year. Subscriptions for this fund were taken from the members and those not present at the meeting will be expected to add their share later. The members are also reminded that the Jubilee fund has not been entirely raised. Miss Florence Carpenter added to the pleasure of the meeting by rendering a vocal solo and responding to applause with an encore. Her accompaniment was played by Miss Alice Richardson. "Bible reading in the Schools" was the subject of a discussion favoring it. "The Desecration of the Sabbath," was the subject of an interesting leaflet read by Miss Calla Morgan, especially regarding the phase, "Are Christians Responsible for this Desecration?" The thought was brought out that we cannot have a Christian civilization with Christ and his precepts left out. Another leaflet, "Overlooked Purpose of the Sabbath," was read by Mrs. G. W. Carpenter. The meeting was closed with the Mizpah benediction and was followed by a pleasant social hour.

Mrs. D. H. Hostetter, of Polo, was a Dixon shopper yesterday.

WED IN MINNEAPOLIS—

Miss Hazel Sunday, youngest daughter of Mrs. Agnes Sunday, of Franklin Grove, and Calvert Martin, son of Mrs. Jennie Reigle, also of Franklin Grove, were married at noon Friday, April 16th, in Minneapolis by Rev. Ray O'Neal, former pastor of the Franklin Grove church. Miss Sunday has been in the employ of the government at Washington for the past year or so and went directly from Washington to Minneapolis, arriving there Friday. She was met by Mr. Martin who, since his discharge from army service, has been engaged in the tractor business in North Dakota. After the marriage ceremony they left directly for their new home in Fargo, N. D. Both are exemplary young people, exceptionally well thought of in their home town, Franklin Grove, where they have spent the most of their lives, and their many friends wish them all the good things of life.

GRACE MISSIONARY—

A largely attended and very interesting meeting of the Grace Evangelical Missionary society was held at the home of Mrs. John Schumm Tuesday. Mrs. S. J. Mall assisted in the duties of hostess. The program was unusually interesting, with Mrs. C. G. Unangst and Mrs. C. A. Garrison developing the topic, "Corea, the Philippines, and Siam." A vocal duet, given by Mrs. Walter Puffs and Mrs. H. M. Hey, with Mrs. O. E. Strook playing the piano accompaniment, was greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Sindlinger read an interesting leaflet, entitled, "I Wish You Were a Doctor." Rev. C. G. Unangst, the pastor, present as a guest, led in prayer, and made some helpful remarks. Victrola music was also enjoyed. A generous self-denial offering was brought in by the members at this meeting. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses at the close of the business session.

BROTHERHOOD MET—

The Lutheran Brotherhood of St. Paul's Lutheran church met at the church Friday evening with a goodly number of members present. Besides the regular business the following officers were installed, the pastor serving as installing officer:
President—L. C. Johnson.
Vice President—C. Wickey.
Corresponding Secretary—O. Clymer.
Recording Secretary—B. G. Robinson.
Treasurer—G. W. Eichenberg.

The pastor gave a very interesting and instructive address on the merger of the Lutheran churches of Illinois. The serving of refreshments by the social committee closed a pleasant and helpful evening.

WAFFLE SUPPER—

A delicious waffle supper is holding a fixed place in the visions of the members of Section No. 4 of the Methodist Aid society and plans each member is making now seem to indicate that there will not be any absentees. The supper will be served at 6 o'clock on Monday evening at the church and will honor Mr. and Mrs. George Newton, who are leaving soon for their new home in Freeport. The families of members are also included in the invitations. Members are reminded to bring their own silver.

RETURNED FROM KAS. CITY—

Samuel Bacharach has returned from Kansas City, where he visited his daughter, Mrs. Sidney Alschuler. Mrs. Bacharach remained for a longer visit. Miss Carrie Rosenthal is also a guest at the home of Mrs. Alschuler.

G. A. R. CIRCLE—

A regular meeting of the Ladies of the G. A. R., Dixon Circle No. 73, will be held Monday evening in G. A. R. hall. All members are urged to be present.

P. T. A. MEETING—

With many patrons of the schools present, the Parent-Teacher association of the Woodworth and Truman schools held a very interesting and successful session on Thursday afternoon in the Woodworth building.

Mrs. A. P. Corbin's paper, "How to Encourage Education in the Children" showed careful thought and the suggestions met with the hearty approval of the parents present. Several enjoyable Victrola numbers followed. Miss Mappin, the school nurse, gave a talk on "The Health of the Child," which carried with it many helpful hints. The question box was also the source of much that was helpful and thought-producing. The questions were answered by Superintendent of Schools Reeder.

Mr. Reeder offered a number of suggestions on the question, "How can the child make up time lost through illness?" including that of parental help at home, a special tutor, and one that may be carried out here soon, the setting aside of one room with a special teacher whose sole work will be that of assisting a child to keep up to grade when handicapped by loss of time through illness, etc.

Another question of especially pertinent interest to parents was, "Is it wise to allow little children or the lower grades to read library books." The answer was that personal selection on the part of the child was not always wise, but that carefully supervised reading was of great benefit in aiding educative processes.

The next meeting will be held in the Truman school and it is hoped that the patrons will show their continued interest in the schools by a large attendance at that meeting.

BIRD HOUSE EXHIBIT—

The Manual Training Department exhibit of bird houses, made by boys of the Dixon schools, is commanding a good deal of attention from visitors at the public library. There are bird houses of every description suited to the wants of wren, bluebird, woodpeckers, chickadee, etc., and much ingenuity has been exhibited in planning these modern residences for the feathered folk. One particularly ingenious one might be Lincoln's log cabin home in replica, another is a miniature bungalow, chimney and all. A Martin house, made from a candy box, with a painted tin roof, shows cleverness in its originator, as do some made from tin cans, with bits of bark carefully concealing the origin. Beaver and asbestos shingles are other materials used. There are at least forty houses in the exhibit and they may be seen again at the library this evening. It is planned to take a flash light picture of the exhibit this evening.

TO CHICAGO RECEPTION—

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Fairchild are spending the week-end in Chicago. While there they will attend a reception at the First Presbyterian church given in honor of Mr. Fairchild's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. William Wade, who have recently returned from India, after spending eight years there in the missionary field.

FROM MENDOTA—

Miss Alice Krug, who is visiting here from Mendota, spent Thursday with Mrs. Clarence Shaver. Friday she went to Sterling to visit with friends there and will return later to resume her visit in Dixon.

WEEK-END GUESTS—

Mrs. H. K. Spensland, and John Spensland are week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Rink. John Spensland is William Rink's great-grandchild. He came to see his 90-year-old grandfather.

Here are a few suggestions in the way of "Dos" and "Don'ts."

"How shall I do my hair?"

There is one DO and one DON'T in answer to this question.

The DO is:

Dress your hair becomingly. To really accomplish this first study the shape of your head; second, the height of your forehead; third, the contour of your nose.

The DON'T is:

DON'T MAKE YOURSELF LOOK LIKE A PEEKY BY BEING A SLAVE TO FASHION.

To Suit Your Face.

All women can no more wear the same style of hair-dress than they can wear the same size of shoes. The woman with a high forehead can add 50 per cent to her personal beauty by pulling soft fluffs of hair over the too prominent feature. The pretty, dimpled, full-faced girl who does her hair in the modern fashionable car puffs is in danger of making her face look fat instead of youthfully round.

Most defects of head contour—even serious ones—can be greatly helped, if not wholly overcome, by the style of dressing the hair. A great many women have what is known as "flat head," that is, a head flat in the back instead of curving outward in the accepted shape of the cranium. But the clever woman by massing her hair at the back of such a head can build out the line until it is wholly attractive.

Greatest Single Beauty.

Actresses understand the worth of careful hair-dressing better than most people, and one of the cleverest at this art is beautiful Elsie Ferguson. Miss Ferguson's hair is always dressed in absolute keeping with the lines of her face.

Well and becomingly dressed hair is every woman's greatest single beauty. It is the belief of Miss Ferguson, who is very careful to avoid all freak styles of coiffure.

W. R. C. SPECIAL—

The Woman's Relief Corps will have a special meeting in G. A. R. hall on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock for installation. All officers are expected to be present and as many members as possible are urged to attend.

When putting away winter suits and clothing remember that it may be several months before these boxes will need opening and don't trust your memory as to their contents.

It's so much simpler to label the box as containing Johnnie's suit or Mary's Peter Pan when you are putting the suit and dress away than it is to open box after box in search of them in the fall.

Boxes containing odds and ends may be marked and the pieces listed. The list may be pasted on the end of the box so that a glance will suffice to satisfy you and there will be no needless opening of many boxes.

Menu for Tomorrow.

BREAKFAST—Orange Juice, broiled bacon, graham popovers, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Creamed shrimps in rice cases, lettuce sandwiches, tea.

DINNER—Nut loaf with celery sauce, shoestring potatoes, buttered carrots, head lettuce with combination dressing, jolly roll cake, coffee.

My Own Recipes.

If one has a shoestring potato cutter, the effort of making these potato strings is not great. However, if one attempts to cut them by hand, infinite patience and time are required. The result is worth the effort in any case. After the cutting, the frying is a small matter. Deep fat frying is the simplest of methods and quite economical as well.

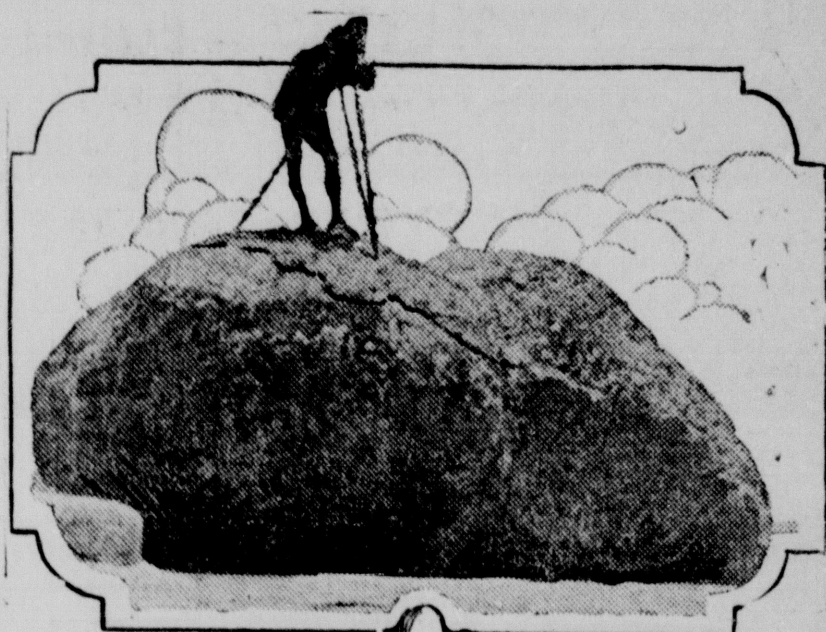

GRAHAM POPOVERS.

¾ cup graham flour.
½ cup white flour.
½ teaspoon salt.
1 cup milk.
2 eggs.
1 scant teaspoon melted butter.

Mix salt and graham and white flour. Add milk slowly, making a smooth batter. Add eggs well beaten, and melted butter. Beat with egg beater for 2 or 3 minutes. Bake in greased custard cups in a hot oven. Bake 30 to 35 minutes in a hot oven.

DARKEST AFRICA ISN'T DARK

Photographing "Darkest" Africa

BY EDWARD M. THIERRY
N. E. A. Correspondent, Who Was
With the Smithsonian-Universal African Expedition

You've got to revise your school-room ideas if you want to be up to date on "Darkest" Africa.

If anybody mentions the Belgian Congo you have a picture of King Leopold scouring the native rubber workers and of a wild country infested with cannibals.

Now there isn't any rubber production to speak of. It's all copper. The Katanga district of the Congo has what is reputed to be the richest copper field in the world.

Copper is responsible for an amazing march of civilization in the Congo.

Work among whites, as in Rhodesia, is reduced to a minimum. Here's the system: Let the native George do it. Be an "executive." Charter a little Swahili and a little French—and life is easy.

Everything, including the banks, closes at 12:30. Then everybody takes a day till the heat of the day passes.

CASES.

1 cup rice.
2 tablespoons butter.
3 tablespoons flour.
1 teaspoon salt.
¾ cup milk.

¾ teaspoon paprika.
1 egg yolk.
Dried bread crumbs.
Egg.

Wash rice and steam till tender.

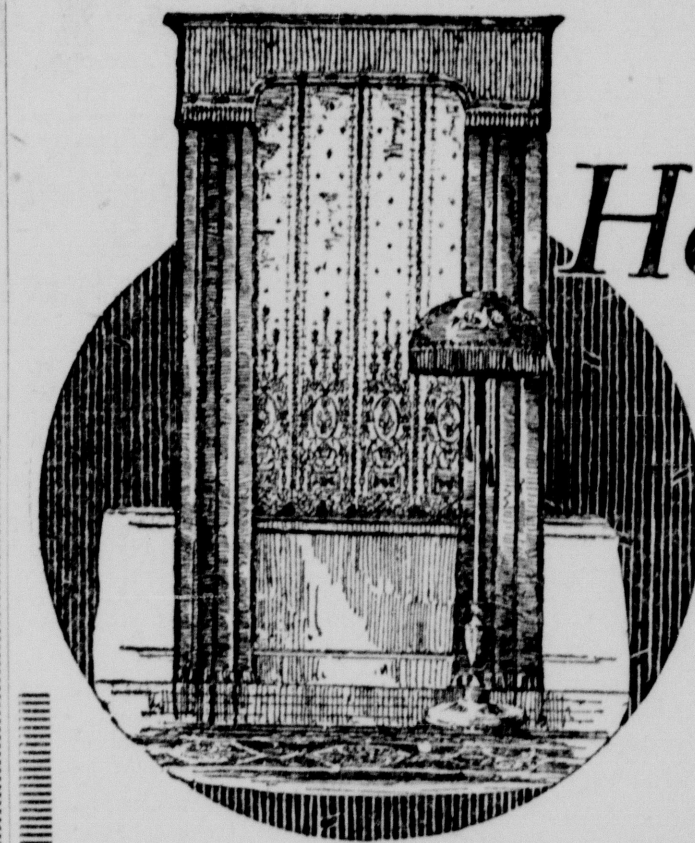

When half done add 1 teaspoon salt. Let cool and mix with white sauce made of the butter, flour and milk. Season sauce with salt and paprika and the well beaten yolk of the egg. Put mixture in a buttered pan, making a layer about two inches thick. Cover with oiled paper and put a weight on top. Let stand until cold and firm. Remove from pan, cut in rounds, removing centers to form cases. Roll in crumbs, dip in egg, roll again in crumbs and fry in deep fat. Fill with creamed shrimps.

I wouldn't be surprised if that grocer of mine starts charging an admission fee.

—So it's really an unprecedented pleasure to offer you a long planned-for event,—

HOME CRAFT WEEK, APRIL 17th to 24th

But of course this is only one of the attractions that you will see in our drapery department. This year we are showing the choicest collection of window lace and of overdraperies that we have been able to offer since the beginning of the world war.

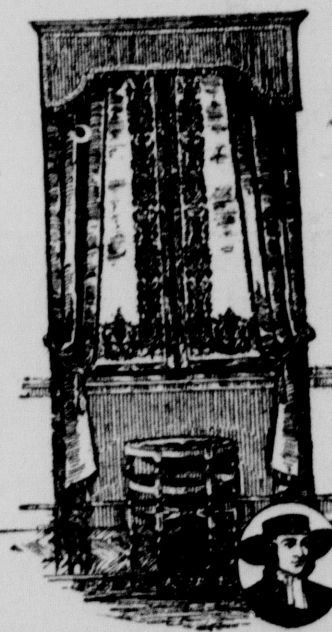

Here are a few items that we believe will interest you particularly:

Quaker Casement Craft-Lace

The use of Casement Craft-Lace introduces personality into the casement-cloth type of window treatment by providing a means of expressing your individuality through the right selection of design.

For the Windows of "Colonial" Rooms.

Many artistic homemakers select a filet net of suitable pattern for the windows of colonial rooms.

The lace is either hung flat or if tied back is fitted with a ruffle of plain filet net. Colonial patterns of Quaker Craft-Lace in filet net grounds.

Our Candidate for President
FRANK O. LOWDEN

SEQUOYA.

Mrs. Richard Croker is said to assert, and Croker's son denies in a suit filed at Palm Beach, that she is descended from a famous Cherokee Indian named Sequoya.

Whatever may be the fact, any one might be proud to claim kinship with that Indian, who was known to the whites as Georges Guess.

Sequoya could not read or write. But he chanced to learn what advantages a written language gave those who could read and write English.

Without help he set about to devise a written language for his own tribe.

He obtained an old spelling book. From this he selected capitals, small letters and figures indiscriminately. Some he used upside down. He invented others until he had a total of 85.

This syllabary was capable of expressing every sound in the tongue of his people. The system was so simple it could be learned quickly. It was adopted by his tribe officially.
In a short time nearly all could read and write it.

Sequoya's achievement was peculiar in that he was not educated in any other written language. He had little to start with.
Men who have done less have been called great.

TOO ECONOMICAL.

There is such a thing as being too thrifty.
It is the pendulum swinging too far the other way. And is really worse than superextravagance.

There are some kind words for the spendthrift, foolish though he be. There are none for the miser.

In Omaha, Neb., lived such a miser, A. J.
Seaman. He was worth, in worldly goods, some half million dollars. Yet he starved himself to death. Starved, not to help another, but to accumulate more dollars. To hoard gold.

For years he lived on 15 cents a week. No, he didn't live; he existed. And when he was ill he refused to call a physician. He, who had been called "the apostle of cheap living," became the miserly example of cheap dying, without physician, without friends, without medicine, without the nourishing food he needed.

"Don't get a coffin, it's too expensive," he told the hospital people, just before he died.
"Get a box."

But the hospital got a casket.

And his half million goes to distant relatives.

STONE AGE STUFF.

A few persons prefer a table in the center of a public restaurant, there to be seen and admired.

Most diners are more comfortable at a

Because of their modesty? Not necessarily!

Another explanation is that the impulse is one retained from the long ago when men lived in caves and retired to a corner to eat.
The cave man liked a wall because he could

The modern diner is in no danger of being robbed in this fashion. If he is robbed now it is in the bill, or through the system which requires him to pay to get his hat back.

But it takes long training to make a man feel at ease when a too-attentive waiter stands close behind his chair. Perhaps this is a heritage of those times when diners feared

A TIRED JUDGE

The other day in Chicago a judge of the superior court resigned. He said he was sick and tired of hearing divorce cases. That was his reason. He didn't say much about the men who seek divorce. But as to the women, he gave it out that idle women and women seeking excitement were the ones who most frequently appeared asking divorces.

Somewhere they have told that the devil always finds plenty of work for idle hands to do. Perhaps the devil is looking especially after the idle woman who wants "excitement."

Sane, healthy, normal women need seldom to be idle. Few of them are. A few fairies in the home, or a couple of harum-scarum boys, will give wives so much to think about,
and to do that idleness would be banned.
The same causes would supply plenty of excitement, too. Depend upon that. One can hardly blame a judge for being tired of listening to those thousands of tales of marital woe.

But one cannot agree with the statement he made. This is it: "Marriage does not mean anything any more." Yes, marriage does mean something. It means as much as it ever did. It means by right, love and home and children, and human happiness. It has always meant that!

GETTING OLD?

Feel like the weight of years is slowing you up?

Not as young and spry as you used to be?
More inclined toward the easy chair than to the long hike?

And yet on the sunny side of the half century mark?

Why, man alive, you're not old!
Stop feeling old.

Give a glance at Matt Crosby, of Ocate, N.
Mex.

Matt is only 91 years old.

Been a cowboy since he was knee high to a grasshopper, and some shucks of a cowboy to this day.

Just the other day he roped and tied a three-year-old steer in a little more than four minutes.

"How do you get that way?" some one asked Matt.

"Livin' outdoors, eating plenty, working plenty, sleeping plenty and lettin' the other fellow do the worrying."

EXPERT CRITICISM

The third grade was studying multiplication and some of the children were having some trouble with the tables.
One boy was having an especially hard time, so his folk were helping him at home. One night they were questioning him, and his sister said: "Birch, if you were to go down to the store to buy nine apples and the grocer told you they were seven cents apiece what would you say?"

Birch answered, immediately: "I'd say, 'Nothin' doin', I won't pay it.'"—Indianapolis News.

NANCY AND NICK RUN AN ERRAND

Rubadub, the fairy-man and the twins, waited and waited in Scrub-Up Land for the Fairies to return, but for some reason they did not come. "Surely they have had time to stick on the pussy-willow buds," Rubadub said in a puzzled voice, looking at his watch. "I wonder what's keeping them! We must have the yellow paint right away, and there none nearer than the Fairy Queen's palace."

Then they waited some time, but Rubadub got so impatient he couldn't even scrub the woodchuck as he was doing, and had to leave off. "The Green Shoes could take the children of the palace and back in no time to get your paint, Mr. Rubadub," said the Magical Mushroom, "and I could go along."

Rubadub almost turned a somersault in his joy at hearing this, at least he did a handspring. "The very thing, my dear!" he exclaimed. "I was just going to use my wand, but the Fairy Queen thinks we're lazy if we depend on she'd say." Then raising his eyebrows he inquired of Nancy and Nick, "Will you really go?"

The little boy and girl put down their paint brushes and stood up quickly, setting the purple crocuses in a tidy row. "Yes, indeed, Mr. Rubadub, we'd love to run your errand."

So in a twinkling Nancy and Nick and Magical Mushroom were on their way to the Fairy Queen's palace, the empty paint-buckets clutched tightly in their hands.

HEADACHE

Headache may often be regarded as a symptom of some underlying organic ailment rather than a local affection. For this reason the sufferer should consult a physician if the headache persists and have him endeavor to locate the seat of the trouble.

It is nothing short of folly to trust to drugs, because they happen to bring temporary relief. This is simply removing the symptom and in no way affects the cause.

Probably the most common form of headache is that caused by eyestrain. Competent observers contend that it alone is responsible for over half of the cases of persistent headaches. In this case it is obvious that the cause must be removed and this can not be done by taking "drugs" that may relieve the pain for the time being.

Some forms of headache are caused by an over-sensitive nerve and brain center. The sufferer is not able to stand the wear and tear of modern life. Things get on his nerves. There is no cure for this except for the person to adjust himself to changed conditions, or to outgrow the sensitiveness.

Other conditions which may cause headache are nose and throat affections, bad teeth, constipation, over-eating, violent coughing, certain forms of rheumatism and sometimes kidney trouble.

Rest and sleep make up the best treatment for the nervous headache, cold compresses for the throbbing headache, a good laxative for the so-called "billion's" headache, suitable glasses for the eye-strain headache.

Q. Have you any printed bulletins on pyorrhea?

A. We have no printed bulletins on pyorrhea, but you will be glad to know that the treatment of this condition is better understood than it was some years ago. Proper cleansing of the teeth and the removal of tartar deposits, and perhaps dental treatment to improve occlusion are usually important. A good dentist can probably remove the trouble.

Q. Have you any information on catarrh? Or a suggested treatment for catarrh of the stomach?

A. The bureau has no bulletins dealing with catarrh, nor can it give any information for the treatment of catarrh of the stomach. The term "catarrh of the stomach" is very loosely used, and cases of what are called catarrh of the stomach are of great variety, and due to many different causes. You are most unwise in seeking advice from anyone except a physician who has carefully examined you and has determined the nature of your condition. You are urged to discuss the matter with your family physician.

"Worth," in proper names, as in Kenilworth, Edgeworth, etc., signifies

SUCH IS LIFE

Stranger, this is Archibald.
His temper is morose,
He does not like to be mis-called,
He isn't just jocular.
Be careful what you say to him
About the glass he wears;
When scoffed at for that single glim
He simply up and rares.
Be careful in his company,
Avoid him if you can,
For Archibald is certainly
A bad, bad man.
A man ought to stick to his favor-

What do you suppose a wild man

Should a Sahara Arab throw away his implements of warfare and invest

No one would advise Jack Demp-

But Charlie Chaplin hadn't learned this lesson—until the other day after his encounter with a film man-

Charlie has become quite adept in the use of the custard pie.
He can plaster one over an oppon-remarkable.

As a marksman he can custard pie a target nine times out of ten.
But when he got into that scrap with the manager, he passed up the weapon he handled best—and took the count.
Instead of doing as he should have done, grabbing up a custard pie and letting go with it full and square at that manager, Charlie shoved out his fists.
This fine defeat does not, however, deprive Chaplin of his title as champion custard pie flinger. They weren't fighting for that title.
Maybe it has been called to your attention often before that merebulk means nothing in a battle.

Confessions of a Bride

(Copyright 1920, by The Newspaper Enterprise Association)

I told Bob the story of my adventure. I made it as short as possible.
Nothing could be strange, in our strange situation. Not even the mention of the names of Jordan Spence and Gene Archer excited Bob. His first comment was brief and to the point.
"Nobody planned this little reunion for us, my love. That we know, all right."

"Evidently two rival influences have been working against us," I asserted.

"And working independently of each other. And they've muffed it," said Bob. "I'm sure that Certeis had me shut up. How he came to have the chance, I'll tell you later. He didn't go to it directly, believe me. Nobody can ever accuse him. He took that precaution."

"I'm here because Donna Camilla hates me," I explained. "There may be secondary reasons—such as my own rashness—but Donna Camilla is the important reason. I do not believe that either of the arch conspirators knew what the other was plotting," I added.

"And so they defeated each other—by giving you back to my arms," Bob concluded, with a kiss.

"If we are going to die," I whispered, "we will die—" I couldn't finish the sentence. Bob did it for me:

"Together!" he said with his lips on mine.

If a wife has loved a husband as sincerely as I have loved Bob "being together" becomes her supreme need. "Being together" will make even dying easy. I wasn't afraid any longer of sudden death by accident or murder. I had my husband with me.

But my love and my presence didn't reconcile my husband to leave this life.

On the contrary, it immediately strengthened his desire to survive. He exclaimed:

"Die? Not yet, my dear. I'm not resigned to the end and I'm not going to be, for quite a little while. When I was alone down there, helpless, and hopeless, facing the inevitable, I managed to camouflage a pretty fair degree of courage and philosophy, but my dear, now that you're with me, I want to live and I swear, by all the love we have for each other, that you and I are going to get out of this, somehow."

"Bob—together—we can—we can manage anything!" I ventured rashly.
Then to prove my words true I meditated upon a possibility of escape. There was but one way out of the dungeon. Bob would have to go up by the way I had come down. It ended, to be sure, in another prison. But it was a nicer prison than the one we occupied. Moreover, we had friends in the secret chamber. I wondered why they were so still. Not a sound betrayed their pres-

"I should think they would call to us," I said. "They have a rope—Chryand I made it. They could lengthen it to reach to the bottom of the shaft."

"I suppose they think you are dead, Jane," Bob said solemnly.

"I'm very much alive—so much so that I could help you overpower your guard, when he comes. When will he come, Bob?"

"Never—never again, my dear. The uniformed Mexicans who put me down here informed me that I had seen the last of this earth. One was a kind fellow. He left me an automatic. He said it was against orders but—he didn't want me to suffer needlessly. He took my valuables in exchange. I'm mighty glad I have that guy because he was glad he had the gun. He didn't need to. I knew and pressed his hand to let him know how completely I understood his meaning. If he died first—and if I were left, what would I need except that automatic?"

POOR COWS DON'T PAY--YEARLY RECORDS PALMYRA TESTING ASSN. PROVE STATEMENT

(By E. G. Thiem, Ex-Tester)

Do you know that there are dairy herds right in this community that not only return no profit to their owners but actually eat up the returns from other farm operations? Do you know that there are cows in nearly every dairy herd that don't pay for their keep? What are you, dairymen, doing to make your herd a source of profit in these days of inadequate milk prices and high feed costs? How much do you know about your herd? How many facts and figures can you marshal forth to back up your statements one way or the other?

The yearly records for 1919 of the Palmyra Cow Testing Association emphasize these assertions and questions and show that:

1.—Poor cows don't pay.

2.—Men who look after the details of their business are the most successful.

3.—Dairy herds sired by pure bred bulls give the best returns.

4.—Poor feed and good cows is an unprofitable combination.

5.—Good feed and poor cows doesn't help the matter much.

6.—Consistency in production throughout the year counts most—not large short time production.

7.—Scrub bulls and scrub methods of farming go together.

8.—Good feed and lots of it fed, to good cows won the honors in the association.

9.—Your farm business is as strong as its weakest point. In other words, good cows and runty pigs, a new planter and poor seed corn, are all inconsistent with good farming.

10.—The members of the Palmyra association accomplished much last year in making improvements, and expects to do much better this year because they believe in organized progress.

To illustrate the fact that production is directly proportional to returns above feed, or in other words that the better feed heavier milking cows give a better net return than good cows underfed or poor producers, note the significance of the following comparisons:

| 1. Average of the best 125 cows that finished year: | | | | | |
|---|-------|----------|----------------|--------|-------------------|
| Milk | % Fat | Lbs. Fat | Val of Product | Feed | Return above Feed |
| 9441 | 3.5 | 329.17 | 200.00 | 124.44 | 175.56 |
| 2. Average of 153 cows between 6000-8000 pounds milk. | | | | | |
| 8928 | 3.65 | 253.00 | 221.98 | 100.49 | 114.49 |
| 3. Average of 48 cows between 4000-6000 pounds milk. | | | | | |
| 6243 | 3.78 | 198.50 | 168.74 | 93.28 | 75.46 |

Note the difference between the returns above feed in the first and third groups. According to Professor Pearson's figures which are the most accurate to be had with reference to total cost of milk production, the net profits for the cows in class 3 were only about 33.00 per cow for the year. Take out of this the milk and feed necessary for the young stock, calves and the herd sire and what you have left will hardly buy the wife a new hat. How many dairymen want to dairy just for the fun of it? And yet that's just what so many of them are doing—paying for the privilege of having their stalls occupied by boarders.

The Cow Testing Association is organized on a sound, business-like foundation and has for its object an

In conclusion, the following observations and comments are made:

1.—Downing got his high records by consistency—by keeping the herd going strong the year around and by giving his cows all they could eat.

2.—The Holsteins seem to predominate in the higher individual and herd records.

3.—Mr. Habben's herd of Brown Swiss is a real herd of which any man may be proud. Incidentally he developed it by using a good pure bred sire.

4.—Mr. Cassens' herd of Short-horns is somewhat of an argument for the breed.

5.—Ebersole & Wetzel have one of the best grade Holstein herds for its size in the country.

6.—Every dairymen whose name is mentioned above, fed a good balanced ration and wasn't afraid to give his cows about all they could eat.

7.—Every dairymen who is going at the business in the right spirit signed up again for the Cow Testing association.

8.—Practically every member of the Palmyra Association is raising the better calves out of pure bred sires and good productive dams.

9.—Detweiler's best cow is worth going to see.

10.—Every member of the Palmyra Association made a reasonably good herd average and there are others not mentioned above that made splendid records.

Heavy Fighting in Siberia Continues

Vladivostok, April 16.—(By A. P.)

Heavy fighting between Russian and Japanese forces continues at Khabarovsk at the mouth of the Amur river and casualties suffered by each side are heavy, reports say. Towns along the Ussuri river branch of the trans-Siberian railway are all in the hands of the Japanese but hundreds of Russians are fleeing to the hills, and have again started guerilla warfare.

Arrests of Russians by Japanese are being returned to Russians and continue, but government buildings the red flag is re-appearing.

Attorney E. E. Wingert went to Ashton this morning to transact legal business.

15 TOLL OPERATORS

A business man complained, the other day, because our toll operators handled his calls according to our instructions. He thought the "Toll Operator" ought to know him well enough to give him special consideration and not stick to her instructions as he conceded it would be proper for her to do with the more infrequent user of the service.

He was surprised when told we did not have "A toll operator" but "15 toll operators" and we hope his attitude in the future will be more considerate. As a matter of fact on the day he complained, 14 young ladies worked at the Toll Switch Board during the twenty-four hours.

Buy Vandalia Land for Ill. State Farm

Vandalia, Ill., April 17.—Land amounting to 1,022 acres adjacent to city was purchased Friday for the first state farm. The farm will be used for male offenders over 16 years old.

In the Spring Time

Any fool knows enough to carry an umbrella when it rains, but the wise man is he who carries one when it is only cloudy. Any man will send for a doctor when he gets bedfast, but the wiser one is he who adopts proper measures before his ills become serious. During a hard winter or the following spring one feels run-down, tired out, weak and nervous. Probably you have suffered from a cold, the Grip or flu, which has left you thin, weak and pale. This is the time to put your system in order. It is time for house-cleaning.

A good, old-fashioned alternative and temperance tonic is one made of wild roots and barks, without the use of alcohol, and called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, in tablet or liquid form. This is nature's tonic, which restores the tone of the stomach, activity of the liver and steadiness to the nerves, strengthening the whole system. First put up by Dr. Pierce over 50 years ago, now procurable at any drug store; or send 10 cents to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package.

ADVENTURES IN AUTOMOBILING

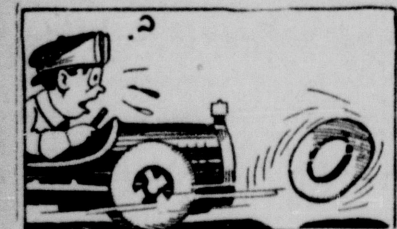

RACER TOO SLOW FOR SPEEDY RIM

Los Angeles, April 17.—Visitors to automobile races go there with the expectation of receiving shocks and thrills from the hair-raising performances that usually accompany these events. But the accident that happened at the recent race here, nearly took the breath away from many a veteran spectator.

Art Klein was in the lead and was turning up the path at the rate of 104 miles an hour. Racing bugs who like statistics have since figured that his wheels were revolving at the rate of 25 times a second. All others agreed he was going some.

He had traveled 183 miles when—crack! Something had snapped sharply, and Art found himself zigzagging and scrambling crazily along the road. He put on the brakes and stopped in time to save himself and some bewildered spectators from being wrecked.

Racing along ahead of the machine, and fast fading from view was the rim and tire of one of his wheels, untouched by the accident but sheared cleanly from the steel spokes. As soon as he recovered from the spill, Klein looked about and saw his right rear wheel rimless and tireless, but the hub and spokes intact.

Some distance farther along the road, the remains of the wheel were picked up—tire fully inflated, without a scratch and perfectly mounted.

It was the first time motor race spectators had witnessed such a freak performance.

PLANT MEMORIAL TREE WITH SIMPLE SERVICES

Many Citizens Participated in Exercises Friday Afternoon.

More than 500 persons assembled yesterday afternoon at the southwest corner of the court house yard, where a tree was planted in the memory of more than 1,500 Lee county young men who participated in the late world war. The schools of the city were closed for the afternoon and the children formed in the parade which started from the city hall and proceeded to the scene of the program.

The Dixon Municipal band played several selections while the parade was forming and at the tree while the school children were assembling. Mayor Mark D. Smith explained briefly the purpose of the gathering and gave a short and interesting address. He was followed by Rev. Ernest C. Lumsden, pastor of the Methodist church, who led in prayer after which all joined in the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner."

State's Attorney Harry Edwards was the speaker of the occasion and in a brief, interesting manner, held the attention of all assembled with his remarks. In part, he said:

CHICKEN BANISHES A DAY'S TROUBLES

Cleveland, O., April 17.—'Twas a Sunday in the rainy season. Jupe Pluvius had turned the bowl upside down. But it was necessary to drive from Toledo to Cleveland. The family was loaded into the car, side curtains buttoned down and we sailed across a film of water over the fine brick roads of northern Ohio.

Sailed along until near Vermilion, when a mile or so of road under repair made a detour necessary. Then we discovered that northern Ohio soil was not the finest for contact with the wheels of a motor car on a rainy Sunday afternoon.

We crept along on second, holding the car desperately to the crown of the road like a man walking astride the ridge pole of a slippery roof.

Suddenly, somehow, we crossed over the ridge and glided gracefully and gently down the greasy surface into the ditch. The family screamed. The water descended. So did the rain. There wasn't a house within a half mile. There wasn't a solid spot under the car to set a jack. Other cars crept fearfully, cautiously by. None stopped.

Father started for a farmer and a team, with visions of a $5 fee for hauling out. He found a farmer, bless his heart, who did the job for $1.50, after plodding the half mile through the mud behind his team, his lantern dangling in the crook of his elbow. And he gave father a drink of cider as well.

Meantime, a kind-hearted couple did gather in the babies and the mother and take them to the village. By the time father and son arrived with the car at 8:30 dinner was over at the hotel. But mother had seen to it that something had been saved.

And, oh, boy! Have you ever eaten a chicken dinner at 8:30 p. m., after a foodless day and the task of digging out a stalled car? It was a perfect end to the day.

Vigilantes of today do not pack guns ready for action against marauders and horse thieves. They now act secretly and are on guard at various roadways in southwest California to observe all infractions of traffic laws and report them, to guard against thefts and prevent motor accidents. They are business men organized by the Automobile Club of southern California.

The tire companies of Akron, Ohio, are now manufacturing 885,000 tires a day, according to the B. F. Goodrich Rubber Co., a tire a second. This is 225 per cent more than a year ago.

There's no reason why former service men should not be good auto drivers. There's the free automobile course offered by the various schools being operated by the Knights of Columbus throughout the country. The first output of finished auto drivers who had served for Uncle Sam during the war will consist of 50,000 veterans.

Drain the Carburetor.
From time to time, the drain cock in the bottom of the carburetor should be opened and the sediment that has collected in the bowl drained out. This rids the instrument of foreign matter that may have collected there.

Springs Need Attention.
Don't forget to attend to the springs when looking over your machine. Since the leaves are intended to slide upon one another when the car is in motion, they need lubrication. If they are dry and dusty—and oftentimes rusty—they work as if they were one solid piece of metal. In this condition, they cannot be expected to take up the shock of a bump as wholly as when properly lubricated and clean.

Seek Out the Trouble.
If a fuse burns out, don't be satisfied by putting in a new one. Find out why the old one blew out, or the same will happen again. Look for a short circuit and correct that.

The Sky pilots were again in form last night and took two straight games from the Pillrollers in the volley ball tournament. As usual the games were well worth watching and were hard fought from start to finish, the final scores being 15-9 and 15-7. The rally of the Sky pilots came too late in the season to do much good as it now is either the Radiators or the Plowmakers who will take the pennant and next week's games will close the tournament unless there is a tie, in which case it will be played off.

WONDERFUL PICTURE AT THE PLAY HOUSE, CHICAGO

Critics who have had an opportunity to obtain a pre-release view of the latest Universal-Jewel production, "The Virgin of Stamboul," starring Priscilla Dean, have been unstinted in their praise of this picturesque photodrama which is now being shown at the Play House, Chicago.

The story was written especially for Priscilla Dean by H. H. Van Loan and it is said that he kept her vision before him constantly during the months he was at work on this colorful romance, the scenes of which are laid in Stamboul, the wickedest city in the world. The result is, from all accounts, that Van Loan has supplied Miss Dean with a role that permits her to exercise the thousand and one phases of her magnetic art.

The central figure in "The Virgin of Stamboul" is Sari, a beggar girl on the streets of the Turkish city, wild as an Arabian steed, and according to the Moslem creed, with a soul as the filth in the streets. While secreted in the mosque, whither she had gone, against the law, or pray that her soul may be cleansed, she is witness to a brutal crime and becomes embroiled in a chain of circumstances as fantastic as the Arabian Nights.

Sari's meeting with the young American commander of the Black Horse Troop, composed of the scum of Asia, her wooing by the powerful sheik, her imprisonment in and escape from the harem, her wild ride across the desert at the head of the untamed cavalry—all are but a few incidents from a story that is alive with tense drama and stirring situations.

The photodrama has been given a sumptuous production by Tod Browning and the principal characters are portrayed by Miss Dean, Wheeler Oakman, Wallace Beery, E. A. Warren, Edward Burns, Eugene Forde, Ethel Ritchie, Nigel de Brullier and Yvette Mitchell.

I. W. W. HEADS ADMITS EFFORTS FOR ONE UNION

Plans Revealed in a Statement By "Big Bill" Haywood.

Chicago, April 16.—Plans of the Industrial Workers of the World to advocate the one big union movement during the present unrest among railroad workers were revealed in a statement by William D. Haywood, former general secretary and treasurer of the I. W. W., and John Sandgren, editor of the one big union monthly published here today.

The two leaders were quoted as denying any connection between the I. W. W. and the railroad insurgents now on strike but said efforts had been made to institute "industrial unionism" in the unauthorized rail strikes as in all other strikes of importance.

"We have always agitated toward securing recruits for the one big union idea," Haywood was quoted. "We did so in the Gary steel strike, and we probably will do so as long as we are an organization—for we consider that the goal of all industrial organization."

Plans which the I. W. W. has been advocating include a complete organization for a one big union with the ultimate goal of taking over the railroads and operating them by the union.

"These plans are, briefly: the use of both verbal and printed propaganda to wean the railroaders away from all other organizations until the one big union would have sufficient strength to declare a general strike on all lines in all crafts, thus precipitating the crisis through which it is hoped the companies will pass into the hands of the union."

An Inside Bath Makes You Look and Feel Fresh

Says a glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast keeps illness away.

This excellent, common-sense health measure being adopted by millions.

Physicians the world over recommend the inside bath, claiming this is of vastly more importance than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing ill health, while the pores in the ten yards of bowels do.

Men and women are urged to drink each morning, before breakfast a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of helping to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible material, poisons, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Just as soap and hot water cleanse and freshen the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the eliminative organs.

Those who wake up with bad breath, coated tongue, nasty taste or have a dull, aching head, sallow complexion, acid stomach, others who are subject to bilious attacks or constipation, should obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to demonstrate the value of inside bathing. Those who continue it each morning are assured of pronounced results, both in regard to health and appearance.

SAGE AND SULPHUR DARKENS GRAY HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Restore Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes naturally dark, glossy and attractive.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Pushing Gigantic Irrigation Project

Spokane, Wash.—While the southwest is straining every resource to put across the Colorado reclamation project, the northwest is hard at work on a scheme which, if carried out, will be the most gigantic irrigation work in the world.

A favorable report on the preliminary survey has just been made by James Munn of the U. S. Reclamation Service.

The project, known as the Columbia basin project, and embracing the water on 3,000,000 acres now arid.

At least 1,750,000 acres of this land are rich, deep loam and highly cultivable, according to the survey commission.

Water will be obtained chiefly from the Pend Oreille River. If carried to completion it is expected the Columbia Basin project will make Spokane the thriving hub of a vast, thickly settled Eden where now are sage brush and sandstorms.

DISCUSS THIRD PARTY Jefferson City, Mo., April 16.—Representatives of "liberal" organization met here today to discuss the plan of forming a Missouri branch of the proposed third party and of placing candidates for national and state offices in the field at the November election.

The conference was called by the committee of 48 which is sponsoring the new party and are attempting to effect it by amalgamating such organizations as the labor party, the non-partisan League and Single Tax Association.

The committee of forty-eight, a national organization was formed by "liberals" at a convention in St. Louis last December.

It stood before Bolshevism came into power. The Lettish government also asks considerable railway and forest concessions.

Constantinople, April 15.—Messages have been received from the Aintab area, in northern Syria indicating that Turks and Armenians are engaged in heavy fighting. The Armenians occupying the American mission buildings. This news has aroused uneasiness regarding the position of the 13 American relief workers at Aintab.

CHAPTER 114.

For days I thought of my problem. For it was a problem to me, although I know many who read my simple story will wonder why I could not be contented to be just a housekeeper now that Robert was doing so well. But those women have never been real business women, or, if they have, it was in some business that did not interest them beyond the size of their pay envelopes.

I know that there must be many women in the world situated just as I was, who feel the same. Women without children who have too much time on their hands, but whose husbands do not want them to work outside of the home for fear they, their comfort, will be neglected—or because of false pride.

I have known many young couples who, simply because of pride, have grubbed along on starvation wages rather than let the wife help, even when there were no children or other cause for her to remain idle save for the short time it took to do the work of two or three rooms. I can't see how a man can be so foolish.

There is another side to this also. The working girl, whether from shop or office, isn't accustomed to so much time. Usually she gets into mischief of some sort, and oftentimes the end is divorce, caused simply by nothing to do.

Small flats with every convenience do not require the time to take care of that a house does. The small-town girl, with her tiny house and garden, chickens, etc., has her day well filled, while the poor city girl—I am speaking now of working girls who marry small-salaried men—is all finished in an hour or two, and then has nothing to do but walk the streets or go to motion pictures.

This is especially true of the very young wife. Girls like Betty and Jane, who wait until they are 25 or more before marrying—and then, as Betty and Jane did, have families—are exceptions.

One more customer dropped out, Mrs. Platt, the woman to whom Mrs. Black had so kindly recommended me. I was to go to her that day. In the morning mail was a note from her—a kind, but rather thinly disguised, apology for saying she would not need me any more.

I sat down and cried. I had hoped so much from my work, and I had failed. Of course I had succeeded for a time, and it had helped wonderfully in keeping me contented, and also in furnishing our home. But to fail!

For the first time since we had gone to housekeeping my breakfast table was uncluttered when noon came, my beds unmade, I had not stirred the entire morning. I thought of Robert, how I loved him, and how happy he was.

"I must do nothing to spoil that happiness. I couldn't bear to see him unhappy again," I said aloud.

Then came a thought. I would go down and see Madame Leets.

I hurriedly cleaned up my rooms, did my marketing, then dressed myself with unusual care. Madame was not peculiar in that appearance went a long way with her. I had an idea in my mind, it might come to something, but she must not suppose for a moment I came to her because it was again necessary for me to work. If she did, my plan would amount to nothing.

When I was dressed I was perfectly satisfied with my appearance, all but my hat. But that could not be helped. It was an old one I had bought of her, and very becoming. But I realized it was last season's shape, and that she would remark upon it at once.

I left the bus before I reached the shop. If she were out I would not go until another day. I did not care to have the girls question me—which they would if they had a chance. I went into a drug store and called her on the telephone.

"This is Mrs. Meredith—Gerry," I told her. "If you have a few moments to spare, I am coming in to talk to you."

"Come right along! What is it? Want to come back?" A note in her voice that sounded as if she hoped I did.

"I am only a short distance away. I will be over at once," I replied, paying no regard to her questions.

"Perhaps it will turn out all right," I said aloud as I hurried down the street.

Hunger Strike Again in Mount Joy Prison

Dublin, April 16.—Another hunger strike is reported to have been begun in Mount Joy prison. The political prisoners, both convicted and unconvicted, who are still detained there refused to take food last night.

The latest hunger strikers total 40, including nine who participated in the original strike.

Sergeant Henison, who was shot during the passage of a procession through the streets of Balbriggan Wednesday, died today.

A revision of the French dictionary which was begun in 1878 now is expected to be finished about 2020 or 2025.

Brest Young Folks Danced on Volcano

Brest, April 16.—Young people of this city have been greatly enjoying dances at one of the large American barracks near town and have just been apprised of the fact they were literally "dancing upon a volcano." The building was deserted after American forces departed for home but they left behind them a large number of cases, which were piled along the walls by those who found the floor was admirably adapted to dancing. One of these boxes were words in English, but the dancers, not understanding that language, did not know

Call Yankee Boozee of "Shock" Variety

Greenock, Scotland, April 15.—American rye whiskey now being imported into this country is said to be of the "shock" variety by the Constable here who has filed a report on the subject.

The effects of pre-war whiskey, he says, even when it had not been bonded for three years before being sold at retail, were nothing in character to those of some of the present day whiskey.

"Whatever their composition is," the officer declares, "their effects are terrible. They not only poison, but madden, and leave persons nervous and depressed after the intoxicating effects have passed away."

"These whiskies are known locally as 'snake bite.'"
